

Serenity Moments Massage

Every client must communicate with the therapist about whether the amount of pressure being used by the therapist needs to be adjusted. At any time, if there is too much pressure or not enough pressure, please let the therapist know.

Each client will have complete privacy while dressing or undressing. Every client has the freedom to undress to their own comfort level. If at any point during the massage you are not comfortable with an area being touched, be sure to let the therapist know.

We are all unique individuals. Some clients may want to talk during a massage session or just simply have the quiet time. Each client can have some "me time" and relax if they choose to. It is totally up to the individual to choose which is more comfortable for them while receiving a massage. You may have some internal feelings or emotions that you may feel while you are on table. You can choose whether or not you want to share these experiences with me as your massage therapist.

I will, as a massage therapist, be professional at all times. I will always use proper draping. I will only uncover the area on which I am working. If at any time you are uncomfortable with the draping, please let me know.

I state clearly to your the client: there will be no sexual language or behavior before, during or after a session between myself and the client. If a client chooses to show indecent behavior during session, the session will be ended and the client must pay for the full session. If at any time my touch is not comfortable to you the client, please let me know. I will stop or change my technique of touch as long as the client brings it to my attention. I do not tolerate that kind of behavior, EVER!!!

With respect, I will always listen quietly and carefully to every client.

Massage is not a substitute for medical treatment. Massages are give for the purpose of relaxation, muscle relief "tension", for improving the circulatory and lymphatic systems and for spinal and emotional balance.

I may end a session at any time for for any reason for which I feel justified in doing so. If they so desire, every client has the right to stop a session.
